

The Craft of Conversation

This project challenges makers to produce a piece of work to stimulate debate/discussion- a point of conversation. These pieces will be shown in a restaurant, each piece sitting at a table to provide a focal point for diners to discussion.

The Mak9 Exchange @ Ormeau Baths Gallery

AIMS

- To create a platform for individual artists and art groups to interface, to get exposure, to network, to exchange ideas, to generate debate.
- To challenge boundaries and preconceived notions regarding 'craft'
- To provoke open ended discussion surrounding craft and the making process
